

we have been supporters and listeners to K-LOVE for many years, it is the most family friendly station on the radio - and serves my family and others with a peaceful, christian alternative to the junk that is otherwise dumped onto the airwaves. It would truly be a shame to lose such an incredible station by losing priority to LPFM.